However this preference will be only applicable when the price quoted by two or more vendors will be the same (in INR) in the price bid.

4. In the cover page of the tender document the EMD value has been given as Rs. 1,15,200/- whereas in the second page of the tender document the EMD value has been printed as Rs.1,51,200/- due to some typographical error. Bidders will have to consider Rs. 1,15,200/- as the actual EMD value.
