Young Alumni Achiever Award 2025

presented to

Mr. Ashok Charan

(B.Tech – Petroleum Engineering, Batch of 2013)

It is a pleasure to introduce Mr. Ashok Charan, a young and accomplished civil servant and a distinguished alumnus of the Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology. Mr. Charan completed his B.Tech in Petroleum Engineering from RGIPT in 2013. Soon after graduation, he embarked on a path of public service, successfully clearing the prestigious UPSC Civil Services Examination in 2015 with an All-India Rank of 562 and joining the Indian Revenue Service (Income Tax).

Following his induction training at the National Academy of Direct Taxes, Nagpur, Mr. Charan began his career in Mumbai and was later posted to the Directorate of Investigation, Jaipur. He is currently serving as Joint Commissioner of Income Tax (OSD) at Circle 6, Jaipur.

In recognition of his exemplary work and dedication to duty in areas relating to Direct Tax Administration during the Financial Year 2023-24, Mr. Charan was conferred the Certificate of Excellence by the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT), in the presence of Hon'ble Union Finance Minister, on 21st August 2024, at New Delhi.

Mr. Charan hails from Jaisalmer, Rajasthan, and continues to maintain a strong bond with his alma mater. He has actively contributed to the RGIPT community through interactions with students, participation in alumni events, and sharing insights from his professional journey. His interactions with students have been particularly inspiring, motivating young minds to pursue excellence with integrity and purpose.

The career and contributions of Mr. Ashok Charan stand as a testament to the values of discipline, service, and leadership nurtured at RGIPT. In recognition of his outstanding professional achievements and continued association with the Institute, Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology is proud to confer upon him the Young Alumni Achiever Award 2025.
