

First Day (July 01, 2022) of Swachhata Pakhwada Celebrations at Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology, Jais

Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology witnessed a dedicated Prabhat Pheri, which marked the beginning of the 15-day Swachhata Pakhwada Celebrations. The pheri/procession was flagged off by Professor A S K Sinha, Director, Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology which started from the Institute's Gate No 01 at 7.00 am and passed through different localities of Bahadurpur village along 02 km stretch of national highway before reaching the nearest Railway Station, Jais.

The Pheri returned following the same route and culminated at the Institute's auditorium at 8.30 am. Professor A S K Sinha, Director, Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Petroleum Technology led the procession, which consisted of institute's faculty, staff and students. More than a dozen students from a local school, S N A Public Inter College, Molvi Kalan, Jais participated in the Pheri. Highlight of the event was the presence of Local Police during the entire Prabhat Pheri.

On the behest of Director, RGIPT Ms Munazza Israr, a student of Class 12th, S N A Public Inter College, Molvi Kalan, Jais administered the Swachhata Shapath to all those present in the auditorium including the safai karmcharis of the institute.